LATE AND IMPORTANT EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

MENTZ, MAY 31.

The following general orders have been published to the Imperial army:

"The unreasonable demands of the insolent government of France, having dispersed all hopes for peace at present, and a new campaign being necessary, the armistice has been declared at an end by his Imperial Majesty, and hostilities will re-commence on the 31st inst. between the hours of eleven and twelve in the forenoon——His majesty having been pleased to confer on me the command of the army, at this critical period, I feel it my duty to exert all my powers; and I wish and hope, that all the troops under my command, on whose bravery depends the happiness of our native land, and the obtaining an honorable peace, may be animated by similar zeal and patriotic sentiments, and that they may vigorously and indefatigably co-operate to gain this important object, to which I hereby solemnly call upon them. Reciprocal confidence of the troops in their commander, and of the commander in his troops, is the only means to favor the execution of this grand design, and to facilitate the fulfilling of duties so noble. This I beg from the army, which I have the honor to command, and I think I deserve it by my sincere attachment to them. I am proud of being at the head of one of the bravest and best armies that ever appeared in the field, and which has in this war already given so many proofs of courage, bravery, and fidelity. Without partiality for the troops of his majesty's hereditary dominions, I shall value the merit of any individual, and feel alike at any loss whatever. Our situation, our views, and our advantages are so closely connected, that all have a right to expect in the same degree, my regard for them. We must all be animated by the same spirit, which is founded on reciprocal esteem, and confidence originating from experience—The generals, I hope, will endeavor to heighten, in the troops under their command, the compliance of their duty, by strong sentiments of patriotism, and by a noble impulse for honor and glory—to guard them against their enthusiasm of the present time, which serves to seduce the public opinion, and to dissolve the bonds of society, they will not suffer single members to undermine the firmness of the whole body by unguarded words, premature reproach, and political quarrels; they will maintain in the principal part of the German nation a firm persuasion and a warm sense of the justice of our cause? and they will establish in the private soldier confidence in his commander and in himself. It is folly to despise an enemy, at least in regard to his strength and valor: but it is also the highest degree of pusillanimity to value him more than one's self and to ascribe to him a superiority of which that enemy has given no proofs whatever—We fight for the rights of civilized nations; Germany has confided to us the care of her welfare and preservation: we must fulfill her expectations—we can, we will do it. The field marshal takes this opportunity to acquaint the troops under his command with his sentiments, and to assure them of the full confidence he places in the known abilities of their commanders, and in their own valor."

"THE ARCHDUKE CHARLES."

COLOGNE, JUNE 12.

Letters from Vienna, of the 26th ult. announces the departure of Count de Metternich for London.

He is charged with a secret mission, relative to an object of the greatest importance.

P. S. We have received this moment, via Cassel, a letter from Frankfort of the 7th inst. from which we extract the following:

"Consternation is to its summit in this city. The archduke has detached from his army nineteen battalions and four squadrons, to reinforce prince Wirtemberg. It seems that the two imperial armies will fall back entirely on this side of the Rhine, to concentre their forces; in order to try the fate of a general and decisive battle. Couriers arrive and depart constantly."

DUSSELDORFF, JUNE 12.

Since the union of the grand French army, with that of gen. Kleber, it has proceeded by forced marches—a part of the army of general Wirtemberg, and his head quarters, have been taken by the French—the principal treasure of the Imperial army at Wisbaden, and all the magazines between the Lahn and the Maine, sufficient to maintain the republican army for a month, have also fallen into their hands.

Generals Bernadotte and Champonnette have blockaded Mayence on the two banks of the Rhine, and General Lefebvre is before Frankfort. The Imperial army has passed the Maine in great haste. General Marceau has carried a new victory on the Glan, by forcing an entrenched camp which the Austrians had established there.

On the 9th, General Moreau, having had information that the army o General Wurmser, posted in the mountains of Nieustadt, were making movements to fall back towards Manheim, and judging by that he could not support his position, he made an attack upon him in front and rear, with the principal forces of the Rhine and Moselle. The issue of the combat is not yet known.

Extract of a Letter from Munich, June 6.

"An extraordinary courier is just arrived here from Inspruck, with dispatches for General Wurmser, which has given the following news, and which has created much alarm.

On the 2d instant the vanguard of the French army was before the town of Trente, from whence the Prince Bishop, and the principal inhabitants, immediately took flight. The same alarm is spread to the towns of Borzen and Brixen."

BRUSSELS, JUNE 17.

General Bournonville accompanied by most of the officers of his etat major, has been for some days past at Dusseldorf. one part of the army which he commanded in the United Provinces, is on its march from the frontiers of Holland to take a position in the neighbourhood of Cleves, Zurich, Reinberg and Meurs. This army will join the left wing of the army of the Sambre and Meuse, and will concert its operations with it. This movement proves that there is no longer doubt with respect to the intentions of the king of Prussia.

MADRID MAY 1.

There are arrived in the Andalousie, near 50,000 men, a part of which seem destined to reinforce the camp of St. Roch, and perhaps, it is said, to lay siege to Gibraltar, and the rest to embark either on board the squadron of admiral Salano, ready to set sail for the Havannah, or on board twelve vessels of the line which are arming in the port of Cadiz.

MAY 12.

It is certain that our court is in full negociation with the French Republic for an alliance offensive and defensive. Orders have been given for 5000 tricoloured flags to be made, which is to float on our squadrons, instead of the white ones hoisted heretofore for the French colours during the government of kings.

The Prince of Peace frequently gives fetes to the ambassador of the French Republic, general Perignon. The king is about to present to him a sword richly mounted.

The equipment of our army and navy go on with astonishing activity. The reinforcements passed to the camp before Gibraltar are considerable; the army which composes it is 40,000 men strong.

Our government is also at present occupied (by consent of the Pope) with the suppression of the greatest part of the Convents in the kingdom.

SCHWALBACH, IN VETERAVIE. JUNE 9.

Battles of Nieder, Lahntoin, Pfoflendorf and Horchiem.

Notwithstanding the advantageous positions which the Austrians possessed in their different points, generals Grenier and Bonnard have attacked, encircled, and taken 5000 prisoners, 23 pieces of cannon, and a number of loaded waggons.

The 5th afternoon, ordered the blockade of Ehrenbreitstein.

The 6th several strong columns passed the Lahn; the first are actually at Nastelen and Selters, 10 leagues from Frankfort, and 11 from Mentz.

Archduke Charles, astonished at the marches and rapid successes of Gen. Kleber, in the environs of the forests of Welterwalld and the other side of the Lahn, and willing to oppose to the French a more considerable force, has withdrawn his army from the Hundsruck, and made it file off by Mentz, in order, in concert with field-marshal Wurmser, to reinforce the right bank of the Rhine and the course of Maine—but, Gen. Jourdan foresaw and destroyed this project, by causing a principal part of his forces to pass the Rhine in the vicinity of Andernach, Coblentz and Nieuwied, to carry him forward on the right bank. His head quarters is actually in this last town.

PARIS, JUNE 16.

Letter from General Moreau, commander in chief of the army of the Rhine and Moselle, to the Executive Directory.

Head Quarters at Artzheim, 21 Prairial (June 9.)

Last night the enemy evacuated Tripstad, Keyserlautern, Newstadt and Spires, and have retired to the environs of Manheim. In pursuing them we have taken between 150 and 200 prisoners.

The army at present occupies the position of Speyerbuach. Head-Quarters this day will be transferred to Edickchossen. By the next courier I shall give you further particulars of our situation. During three days I have not been from off my horse. Never were our affairs in so good a train on the Rhine.

(Signed) MOREAU.

Letter from the Commissioner Hauffman, to the Executive Directory.

Head-Quarters at Artzheim, June 9.

The Austrian army, which so bravely broke the armistice, runs in full speed, without firing a single gun. Our advance guard pushed on yesterday as far as Durckheim, without being able to overtake them. Keyserlautern, Neustadt, and Spires are occupied by our troops. About a hundred prisoners were taken by our generals, who were reconnoitering the enemy. These prisoners were joyful at this adventure, which shews to what a pitch of discouragement their army has arrived.

(Signed) HAUFFMAN.

JUNE 18.

The king of Spain has published a proclamation forbidding all tribunals, even the inquisition itself, from constraining the French in their religious worship. In the same proclamation he declares that he will acknowledge as Frenchmen only those who wear the tri-coloured cockade. This order is dated the 1st of May.

JUNE 21.

The reports of peace so generally spread, and even mentioned in the council itself, have all of a sudden ceased. Were they without foundation? We think they were not; we persist in believing that there has been a question of armistice for several days past in agitation; that a courier came to ask it in the name of the emperor; that the directory have deliberated upon it; but that they will not listen to any preliminary conditions, except Mayence and Manheim, the keys of Germany are given into their hands, lest the definitive negociations should not be agreeable to their wishes. Whatever were the conditions demanded of the emperor, we are persuaded that he will not fail to repent of having refused them. The reason of it is simple; his army is dispirited; every day announces him a fresh misfortune. The enthusiasm of victory is amongst our troops; this multiplies an hundred fold their strength, and we are promised prodigies of success.

ARMY OF THE SAMBRE AND MEUSE.

Head-Quarters at Montabauer, 29 Prairial.

"What I had the honor to promise to you is come to pass. The enemy after having drawn almost the whole of their forces from the left bank of the Rhine to the right, the archduke having augmented his army with some corps from that of Wurmser, was on the Lahn with much more considerable force than I could draw together, and profiting by this advantage, having it in his power to make his movement much more promptly than I, he has made his way to the upper Lahn, so that when I would have passed the van-guard on the 27th from the side of Vetzlar, General Lefebvre who commanded it was attacked by a great body of the army. This brave general did not think it his duty to retire without fighting, engaged the enemy, and a serious combat ensued, of which I cannot as yet give you the details. The moment I am in possession of them they shall be forwarded to you. The enemy, though four times the strength of that of General Lefebvre, has lost much more men than he. Our loss may amount to 150 or 200 men, killed, wounded, or prisoners. The number of the latter is small, and we have made a considerable number. Four pieces of cannon have fallen into the hands of the enemy, which they charged with incredible impetuosity, but which they never could have seized but for their discharges of case shot.

The event would not have prevented me from attacking the enemy on the 29th, as the army had already received orders, if I had not been informed that a considerable force on my left hand had borne off. I did not then think it my duty to expose the safety of the army, and I have ordered a retreat. General Kleber is arrived upon the Sieg, with a part of the army, and I shall retire to the left bank of the Rhine with the other part.

I shall go to-morrow to Coblentz, from whence I shall send you details, and the dispositions I intend making. It is not possible for me to write more at length to you to-day.

(Signed) JOURDAN."

FROM THE WEST-INDIES.

The Fair Columbian, Capt. Moody, arrived on Tueſday from Jamaica. The day before Capt. Moody ſailed, the Alfred of 74 guns brought a French frigate of 44 guns and 250 men into Kingſton. The French frigate had captured 5 merchantmen out of a fleet the Alfred was convoying from the windward, and ſuppoſing her in the night to be an Eaſt-Indiaman, run within reach of her guns, but it was too late to make her eſcape when ſhe diſcovered her error.

Capt. Moody left at Kingſton the brig Elizabeth, Fullerton, of Philadelphia, the brig Peggy, Wallace, of Baltimore, and a number of other American veſſels, names unknown.

The brig Peggy of Boſton, Capt. Smith, was condemned while Capt. M. was laying at Kingſton. She had ſome wine on board, which Captain Smith had cleared from Martinique for Antigua and from Antigua for Jamaica, where ſhe was ſeized and the veſſel and cargo, conſiſting chiefly of ſalted proviſions, condemned—according to a late law of the Iſland nothing can be entered for exportation.

EXTRACTS FROM JAMAICA PAPERS, RECEIVED FROM CAPTAIN MOODY.

KINGSTON (JAMAICA). JULY 12.

A conſiderable body of troops is ſaid to have lately arrived at the Havannah, where there is, if information be juſt, 18 ſhips of the line. An approaching war with Great-Britain is the prevailing topic of converſation.

JULY 13,

The drought which has ſo long prevailed, will, it is feared, prove deeply injurious to the country. Some exceſſes have been commited in Clarendon, in conſequence of the want of proviſions; but timely exertion ſubdued the offenders, and placed them in a ſtate of ſecurity.

JULY 14.

Accounts from the Havannah, which we have upon very good authority, bring rather more favourable intelligence than there has been rumoured about for ſome days paſt:—A packet arrived there about 14 days ago which bro't poſitive information, that the fleet of Admiral Solano, had received orders to diſembark all their ſtores, and to be diſmantled. An orders likewiſe brought by her for the Commander in Chief of the naval force at the Havannah, to return with his ſhips to Spain—And we learn by the ſame way, that the Governor only ſhortly ſince appointed to command at Carthagena, has likewiſe been recalled.

Thus we are happy to find, that all idea of a rupture between Great-Britain and Spain is laid aſide, at leaſt on the part of Spain; and we are apt to think, that Great-Britain will not be deſirous of entering into a conteſt with that power, at leaſt during the preſent criſis.

We are ſorry to underſtand that Admiral Parker, is in ſuch an ill ſtate of health as to require an immediate change of climate; he will accordingly embark this evening on board the ſhip of war which can be firſt ready, and will proceed on his voyage to England to-morrow morning if poſſible.

JULY 15,

The Maſter of the Salter mentions, that a Dutch ſquadron of 7 ſail of the line, weakly manned, left the Canaries on the 17th May, the day before which, ſy had been reconnoitred by an Engliſh 74; on the 20th and 21ſt, a heavy cannonading was heard and it was ſuppoſed two fleets had met.

JULY 16.

By the Aid we learn that the Britiſh are in quiet poſſeſſion of the iſlands of St. Vincent and Grenada.

We hear that General CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY, of South Carolina, is to ſucceed Mr. MONROE as miniſter plenipotentiary of the United States to the French Republic.

Mr. PINCKNEY is a gentleman of the firſt abilities, a firm republican patriot, and a decided and unequivocal friend to the conſtitution and government of his own country.

[Phila. Paper.]

Fort Ontario or Oſwego, July 16, 1796.

'Twas not 'till the 14th inſt. that we entered this fort. Capt. Thomas Clarke who commanded here had left it ſome hours before we arrived. Lieut. Elmer, on account of ſome buſineſs had paſſed the preceding day and night in the fort.

Immediately after we entered the fort, we announced it to every body and thing within hearing by the diſcharge of 15 connon, and by diſplaying the American colours. We are all here at length, having waited ſix days at Oſwego Falls for Capt. Clarke to take away ſome of his Majeſty's ſtores, for which purpoſe a Kingſton veſſel had been hourly expected. We find the gardens left in good order, containing large quantities of vegetables. In ſhort, Capt. Clarke's whole conduct has been that of prudence, politeneſs, and benevolence. He has diſtributed among our officers two ſheep, a bear, a deer, ſeveral cats, and ſnow-ſhoes. We find a plenty of tables, ſome chairs and other valuable articles. The fort is ſituated on a high and commanding ground, near, and in full view of the grand lake Ontario. Lieut. Rowan, and Doctor Rhodes remain here. The fort is in a regular pentagon, with five baſtions, and accommodations for 300 men, beſides ſtore-houſes, ſtables, &c. The whole would make a moſt handſome appearance, if the works were not old and in a ſtate of decay.

FROM A CHARLESTON PAPER, AUGUST 4.

DIED.—Yeſterday morning at two o'clock, Mr. WILLIAM THROCKMORTON, Printer. The evening before, he wrote a note for the publiſher of this Gazette, in which he ſays he was lately the publiſher of a paper at Staunton, in Virginia; and that he alſo lived in Winchester, Richmond, and Alexandria. He requeſted that if he ſhould die ſuddenly, we would publiſh theſe circumſtances and wiſhed the printers in the above mentioned places would do the ſame. At the time of writing the note, we are informed, he was not, apparently, much indiſpoſed, but grew ill in the night, and died in a few hours.

DUMORIER.

FROM A GERMAN GAZETTE.

Letters from Copenhagen mention —" On the 12th of October, laſt year, a ſmall ſized man arrived here, who announced himſelf for a French American, and ſoon after departed in an American bottom for America. Afterwards we were informed, that it was the famous Dumorier, who finally deſpaired of re-eſtabliſhing the Conſtitution of 1791. He was here not attended by any ſervants, but received frequent viſits from a lady, who alſo took a paſſage with him for America. When Dumorier got apprized that the French deputies, impriſoned by the Auſtrian monarch, were to be delivered to the French, he appearad to be ſenſible that there remained no hopes for him any more to emerge in Europe."

FROM RUSSIA.

BOSTON, AUGUST 17.

Yeſterday Capt. Smith arrived here from St. Peterſburg, in 74 days.—He informs, that in Denmark vigorous preparations were making for war. That united Daniſh and Swediſh fleets lay in Copenhagen road, completely victualled and manned—and that in Norway, two French privateers had taken and carried into Creſtianſand, fourteen Britiſh ſhips laden from the Baltic.

Extract of a letter from a merchant in St. Peterſburg, to his Correſpondent here, dated 28th May, 1796.

" The diviſion of Poland is not yet amicably ſettled, and from the vigorous preparations for war we fear the conſequences—the Swedes and Danes are all arming—but all is ſecret in this country.

" The ſmall crops the laſt year owing to a very ſevere drought, and the increaſing demand for our products, had advanced the price much beyond any former period.—Indeed very little hemp or iron can now be had, at any price.—The Britiſh government have contracted for ten thouſand tons of clear hemp, to be delivered at this city in June; other contracts are made for Spain and Portugal.

" Several ſhips of your country are taken up for the ſouthern ports in Europe; others (if faſt ſailers) would now meet with advantageous freights.

" The ice cloſing our river until the 15th May, will prevent your ſhips being diſpatched with their uſual expedition; and it is now impoſſible to know what price will be demanded for hemp, as the before mentioned contractors are not yet ſupplied, and orders for purchaſing increaſing daily."

On Friday laſt ſailed from this harbor, the ſloop Portland Packet, Thurlo, in government ſervice, bound for Halifax, having on board Hon. David Howell, Eſq. Commiſſioner on the part of the United States, to determine our eaſtern boundary, the Hon. James Sullivan, Eſq. Agent on the ſame buſineſs; and ſeveral gentlemen paſſengers. She is to proceed to Halifax, where the preliminary buſineſs with the Engliſh commiſſioner, Thomas Barclay, Eſq. will be tranſacted—after which ſhe will go to the vicinity of the controverted boundary, where the buſineſs will be decided.

FAYETTVILLE, AUGUST 14.

We announce with pleaſure the reelection of the hon. William B. Grove, to repreſent the diviſion of Fayettville in the enſuing Congreſs, by a very great majority of the ſuffrages.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY laſt Saturday night, negro JACK, a light yellow fellow, thirty four or five years of age, about 5 feet 9 or 9 inches high. He is a ſtout, likely fellow, large coney face, down look, has loſt the ſmall toe of one of his feet, I think the left. He has with him a variety of good clothing, among which is a brown cloth coat, a ſtriped ticken cloth waiſtcoat, boots, &c. He made his eſcape in company with a white girl, with whom it is ſaid he has cohabited for ſome time paſt. She is a ſtout, likely young woman, about 17 or 18 years of age, is of a yelloviſh complexion and has dark hair. She is of reſpectable parentage, but is unhappily far advanced with child by ſaid fellow as I am informed. As ſaid girl can probably write, ſhe may perhaps give ſaid fellow a paſs; at any rate he will endeavor to paſs for a free man, under cover of this unfortunate and abandoned young woman. They had with them a ſorrel horſe about ten years old, 13½ hands high, and has too remarkable bumps between his ears—they may perhaps pick up another. For ſecuring ſaid fellow ſo that I get him again, I will give the above reward, and if brought home, a further reward proportionate to the trouble and expence.

Three fifths of a country, to Europe made known,
By matchleſs Columbus—the pride of a throne!
A vowel bring forward, and carefully add
The tool of all ſcriblers, good, midling & bad;
One half of a Chriſtian name ſacred to France,
My reader will now condeſcend to advance,
And then a new coinage muſt come to his aid,
Not highly important, yet uſeful in trade,
Tho' trifling its value, one half ends the name
Of a BLESSING, which here we peculiarly claim,
Whoſe Gifts to preſerve (ſpontaneouſly led)

HIBERNICUS.

A VERY VALUABLE MERCHANT MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term, not leſs than ſeven, or more than eleven years, from the firſt day of September next. The Mill houſe is 42 by 40 feet, three ſtories high, built with ſtone, and has in it 3 pair of French burr ſtons, two overſhot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and neceſſary for carrying on the buſineſs with diſpatch, and at as little expence as poſſible, all in good order.—From the mill to my landing on the Potomac river, (where craft of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Waſhington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This ſituation aided by a ſufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extenſive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the diſtance to it being from 8 to 10 miles leſs, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premiſſes a large ſtone Cooper's ſhop, a ſtone granery and a commodious Miller's houſe. At the landing aforeſaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardneſs and probably will be finiſhed the enſuing Fall.

There are alſo on the premiſes a Brewery and Diſtillery built with ſtone, in them are three ſtills, two coppers or boilers, with every neceſſary article, all new, and in good order, and ſufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Diſtillery, upon a very extenſive plan. This property I will rent for the ſame term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premiſes, and along the banks of the river, where crafts may load with eaſe and diſpatch, is an immenſe quantity of building and foundation ſtones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with eaſe, the ſtone taken from theſe quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other ſtone brought to it. I will rent theſe quarries ſeperately or together as may beſt ſuit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill is a ſtone Dwelling houſe, large enough for the accommodation of a family, alſo, a kitchen, Dairy, ſmoke houſe, &c. and a garden encloſed, and in cultivation, the ſoil of which is equal in goodneſs to any in this ſtate. I will alſo rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Diſtillery is a Smith's ſhop in which is a complete ſet of Blackſmith's tools, which I will alſo rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blackſmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the ſtone quarries, I will ſell three crafts which were built for the purpoſe of carrying ſtone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate poſſeſſion will be given, for terms apply to the ſubſcriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Diſtillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and muſt be ſo returned, at the expiration of the leaſe or leaſes.

Purſuant to a decree of the Court of the County of Weſtmoreland, to us directed, we will proceed to ſell about

Three hundred and eighty acres of land upon a credit of twelve months, lying about a mile above Leeds town, upon Rappahannock, River, on Tueſday 20th day of September next. The place was the reſidence of the late John Waſhington, Eſq. known by the name of Liberty. The ſoil is very fertile, particularly for the production of Indian Corn, and profitable crops of ſmall grain have been made upon it; very extenſive marſhes are near, and the place itſelf affords ſuch improveable meadow ground that the proprietors may keep very large ſtock of all kind. There is on this plantation a good dwelling houſe with four rooms on the lower floor and two above, and out houſes, and it abounds with fine ſprings. An accurate ſurvey will be ſhewn at the ſale, and it will be rquired that the purchaſers ſhall exe ctue bonds for ſix equal ſums payable to each of the diſtributors or their guardians who are entitled to the money ariſing from the ſales.
